

I am very much in favor of retaining and upgrading the International Morse code requirements for U. S. amateur radio operation below 30 MHz. The minimum requirement should be 10 words per minute, perfect one minute copy of 5 letter and number groups, not plain language.